Annual Conference Bursaries

The RCGP Annual Primary Care Conference is the must attend event of the year for GPs and practice team colleagues, showcasing the latest clinical and policy developments across the UK and bringing together an impressive range of national and international speakers.

The 2019 Annual Conference will take place in Liverpool, 24-26 October 2019

The Faculty plans to purchase tickets for the conference in order to offer 2 Students, 2 Associates in Training and 1 First5 GP the opportunity to attend and £250 towards travel and accommodation.

If you would like to be considered please email sewales@rcgp.org.uk by 31 May 2019 stating the reasons you wish to experience the conference and what you would achieve by attending.

All AiTs and First5 GPs covered by the South East Wales area are eligible to apply, entries will be judged by members of the RCGP South East Wales Faculty Board.

Winners will be announced by 14 June 2019 and asked to feedback on their experience.
